Wheat Crop Through; 250 Cars Loaded Here

'Million Dollar" Crop for Area; Drops to $1.90

Rain Needed Now For Row Crops

With approximately 240 cars loaded through Thursday, Hamlin area's wheat crop was virtually completed this week. Only a few scattered tracts of wheat are left to be combined, it is reported, and a final total of 250 car loads is anticipated.

Wheat was bringing $1.90 per bushel in Hamlin Thursday morning, a 60 cent drop from the opening high of $2.50. Most farmers sold their wheat for $2.00 or better.

Competent local crop harvesters say the wheat averaged around 15 bushels per acre throughout this section and Hamlin wheat growers are credited with producing a "million dollar" crop.

Combines and trucks that poured into the early wheat belt were nearly all gone by the middle of this week and had started the long trek northward that will eventually wind up in far northern states and some in Canada.

Wheat in this locality was said to be excellent quality.

Hot winds of the past two or three weeks which proved such boon to wheat growers are now causing lots of uneasiness to those with row crops. Rain is badly needed now for feed crops, cotton, and other farm products.

Bangs Disease Speeds Tests In Herds of Area

A number of dairy herd owners in the Hamlin area have tested their cows for Bangs disease and tuberculosis, it has been revealed According to local employees of the Banner ice plant which now handles Banner milk here, these tests are the only way mlk may be safeguarded against the disease.

No cure or treatment has been discovered and when a cow is known to have the disease, the only recommended use is for beef. Thorough cookng is supposed to kill the disease.

Coumers of milk from infected cows face the danger of Brocellosis. commonly known in humans as Malta, undulant or goat fever. It is conveyed to them in raw milk or cream or products made from the same.

"Doctors warn that only pasteurization will render such milk absolutely safe." Banner representatives said, adding that danger of contracting the disease from infected cows is great. Just as no cure has been found for the dsease in cows, so no permanent cure has been found for humans and although it may be controlled. it seldom kills. but may cause permanent discomfort.

All users of milk products are urged to use products only from herds known to be tested or insist on the pasteurization.

Wet Areas Banned Under Liquor Bill

Jones, Fisher, Haskell and Taylor Counties are among the Texas counties which cannot have wet precincts or cities unless they approve legal alcoholic beverage sales on a county-wide basis, according to reports from Austin.

Representative Augustine Celaya of Brownsville, author of the bill setting up the new plan, declared that persons urging Governor Jester to veto the measure stress the wet and dry issue rather than the law enforcement merits. He cited nine provisions for enforcement, among them a prohibition against employment of minors by local or general distributors, and a ban on consumption on the premises by any minor.

Phyllis Richardson left Thursday for Lubbock, where she will attend the summer term at Texas Tech.

Mr. Jones deplored double parking, speeding, U-turns an other bad driving habits observed daily in the city. He said the problem could be solved by each individual driver resolving to drive better and suggested that the club adopt a safe driving program.

Following his talk the meeting was more or less turned into an open forum and a number of members expressed opinions on the matter.

Miss Arlene Chism of Pasa Robles, California was here two days this week visiting her aunt, Mrs. Earl Crow and family. She was accompanied by a friend, Miss Oris Dittman. The two are on a trip that will take them through much of the Southwest.

Special Election Called by Hamlin School District

An election has been called for June 17 by the Hamlin School Board for the purpose of adding to the Building Fund in order to complete and furnsh the building now under construction and to make needed repairs to the High School. The Elementary Building is near completion with only a few more weeks needed for the finishing work. The Primary building has the structural work completed and is ready for the plastering and finishing work.

It is pointed out by the Board that the elementary building was designed to care for the original Hamlin District. With the expansion of the district from 25 square miles to the present 251 square miles and from the 679 scholastics to the present 1,091 scholastics, the Board began the additional building on the existing funds in order to have a school plant in readiness by September to care for the entire district.

In a statement to The Herald the board said: "It is estimated that the present school plant when completed will be ample to care for the needs of the district and will allow for a normal expected growth of the scholastic population. Therefore, no further future building need be anticipated during the life of the present buildings. The $60,000 bond issue that is asked by the Board is spread over the entire area of the District, which now has an evaluation of over $4,000,000 based on last year's equalization, the greater portion of which is on county evaluation. The issue asked by the Board will not be such as to cause changes in the tax rate or overall increase in evaluation and leaves the District in a much better financial condition than at the time the first issue was requested."

Majority of Farm Products Remain At Higher Prices

Active demand at firm to higher prices ruled the majority of southwest farm markets in the latest report received by The Herald from the Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture. Wheat, cows, calves, shorn lambs and hens were the losers.

Liberal offerings of new crop wheat broke the market early last week, and prices fell 50 cents after the long holiday week-end. Later rallies recovered little of the losings. The new crop made favorable

Eggs and most poultry maintained Hens showed slight weakness, and Texas and Louisiana centers showed gains of 25 to 75 cents.

Spot cotton prices climbed steadily last week to score total advances of around $4.50 per bale. Fairly numerous inquiries for the higher grades attracted only light offerings. 8he new crop made favorable progress in most states.

Eggs and most poultry mantained steady to firm prices last week. Hens ssowed slight weakness, and sold mainly at 22 to 26 cents per pound. Most areas brought eggs at 36 to 38 cents per dozen; but South Texas and Lousana centers gains of 25 to 75 cents.

Hog prices fluctuated some last week but netted mostly gains of 25 to 75 cents. Heavy weights at the Wichita market showed the only real weakness. Closing bulk of good and choice butcher hogs brought $24.75 at Fort Worth and Denver. Closing top was $25.25 at Oklahoma City and $24.60 at Wichita. Week's top was $24.25 at San Antonio.

Spring lambs gained mostly 50 cents to $1. at southwest terminals last week, but aged sheep and low grade shorn lambs dropped almost as much lower. Good and choice spring lambs brought $20. to $21.50 at San Antonio; $23.50 to $25. at Fort Worth; and $24.50 to $25 at Wichita. Oklahoma City brought medium to good kinds at $20 to $24.

Generally steady to slightly weaker prices prevailed at Denver last week for steers, heifers and cows, while low grade cows and calves moved generally lower at other southwest markets. Bull and some stocker classes showed weakness at San Antonio and Oklahoma City. Canner and cutter cows sold at $8.50 to $10.50 at Houston; $8.50 to $11.

Round Top Field Expected To Have 2 New Producers

H. M. Warden, Dallas, vice-president and general manager of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Lines, lead a Katy paint gang recently when the station at Italy, Texas, was painted white. Holding the bucket for Warden is W. Dinsmore, Katy agent at Italy for 28 years. The occasion was a recent clean-up paint-up campaign started by the town's 1228 residents, when, armed with mowers, rakes, brooms, mops, soap, water and paint they turned out on a Good Neighbor Day to clean up the town. By sundown the village was the cleanest in the State of Texas. In order to co-operate with residents the Katy broke all precedents, and painted its depot white instead of standard green—as a result the railroad now has what is believed to be the only white frame depot in the nation.

Terrell No. 2 Due to Come In Thursday

Texas Company South Offset Said Good Well

Oil talk in the Hamlin area this week centered around the Round Top field 10 miles west of here in Fisher County where one well was due to have been completed Thursday and another is expected to be drilled in momentarily.

From a source considered reliable, The Herald learned Wednesday night that the J. B. Terrell No. 2, a direct east offset of the pool opener, No. 1 Terrell, was expected to be brought in during the night or early Thursday. Drillstem tests were reported to have recovered a good quanity of high-gravity oil from about 4,900 feet. It was said that a well was likely to be much better than the No. 1 which gauged 307 barrels daily of 41 gravity oil.

In the same field, the Texas Company is also said to have another real producer and it is likely they will complete it within a few days. Nothing authentic could be learned. Interest in the area has mounted since the deep test was successful several months ago.

Elsewhere in Fisher County, considerable activity has been noted in the Eskota field.

Drilling began Saturday on a new Jones County wildcat, 10 miles to the southwest of Anson, which may test through the Strawn series. It is Ungren & Frazier and Jones & Stasney No. 1 J. Marvn Lewis, 330 feet from south and east lines of S. S. Redman survey 1. Primarily to test the Swastika, the test is projected to 4,800 feet with cable tools.

Five miles north of Merkel, operators were checking for the basal Cisco sand below 3,500 feet in Roark, Hooker & Roark No. 2 E. T. Pitzer et al, extension attempt to the county's only Strawn production. Location is lot 25, league 56, De Witt County School Land.

A mile north, operators were working for completion in the Noodle lime between 2,433 and 2,440 feet on Trinity Carter, section 32, block 18, T & P survey.

The test had been drilled to 3,112 feet without logging any shows of deeper than the Noodle. First perforations in the section were squeezed off after cement failed to shut off water from a lower formation.

Operator of Austin Motel Compliment Seniors Behavior

A letter complimenting highly the conduct of Hamlin High School seniors while spending two nights at an Austin Motel has been received by Superintendent I. S. Huchingson of the local schools. Mr. Huchingson feels that parents and Hamlin people in general would be interested in contents of the letter which follows:

Dear Mr. Huchingson:

Am writing this letter to let you know that I appreciate your students staying with me on the nights of May 16 and 17. They were all well behaved and I find no complaint of their conduct. You certainly had good sponsors to look after them. They stayed on their job and saw that things were carried out, I am sure, as you would have them done. You are very fortunate to have sponsors like them. I would like to meet you some time when you are in Austin. I naturally feel interested in school teachers because my husband was superintendent of School's at Victoria up to the time of his death in 1912. Thanks again for the opportunity to take care of your group. Hope you see fit to send them to me again.

Yours very truly,
Mrs. Mae S. Cox

Head Of Jones Farm Bureau Protests Slash

Howard C. Campbell, president of Jones county Farm Bureau has wired Congressman Omer Burleson Senators Connally and O'Daniel, and Clifford Hope, chairman, Agricultural Committee, deploring the drastic slash in the appropriations for the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

"Hoover's economy movement was a picnic for the farmers compared with what will eventually happen if Congress now cuts the heart out of our department," Campbell said.

The economy would cripple the P. M. A., the R. E. A., the school Lunch Propram, the extension Service; crop insurance, Research and Marketing, and kill the FSA tenant purchase program.

"We have wired our Congressman our protest," Mr. Campbell said, "and we are supporting the Texas Farm Bureau Federation and the American funds for the Department of Agriculture."

Fisher County Farm Fields Being Saved By Grass Plantings

Hamlin section farmers are quite interested in the fact a number of abandoned fields in Fisher County are being brought bac kinto use.

A number of Fisher County farmers are seeding depleted soils to pasture grasses and clovers.

L. W. Turbeville reports that he has been called on repeatedly for help in putting the old fields back into production.

J. C. Simpson, for instance, a Fisher County farmer, has made five acres of abandoned land pay dividends again by clearing off mesquite growth and planting weeping love grass, Madrid clover and blue panic grass.

Tom Parker, another Fisher Couney farmer, revived nine and a half acres with buffalo, blue grama and blue panic grasses. Mrs. Faye Young Morton, who lives north of Hamlin, brought six acres back to life with the weeping love and blue panic grasses.

County Agent Turbeville says there is a drive underway in the county to put all land to some good use. Most of the new acreage that has been planted to the grasses and clovers will be harvested for seed, so that more extensive pasture seeding can be done during 1948.

Too many people interpret courtesy as lack of sales resistance.

Jones County's California Creek SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

W. W. Mayfied, located in the Southwest Stamford group of the California Creek Soil Conservation District, sowed biennial white clover on his tank dam last fall. It has made a good growth and furnishes grazing as well as protection to the dam. Mayfied said, "My clover is doing so well that I am going to plant some in my pasture next fall."

Mayfield planted an acre of clover in 1945 and followed it with cotton. "You could see to the row where the clover had been planted. The cotton was about one and a half feet higher than that around it," he said. Although no greater cotton yields were made n rlover area, due to damage from worms, the plants were healthier and more vigorous because of the increased plant food and improved soil structure provided by the clover. The residual effects of the clover are evident this year. Small cotton plants in the clover area show longer, straighter, and heavier tap root as well a heavier stalks than in nearby areas were no clover had been planted.

Charlie Walsh, located in the Southwest Stamford Soil Conservation group, made his first cutting of afalfa on may 6. He just had time to stack and cover it before the heavy rains set in. It is estimated that he made 2.8 tons of hay, off his two acre bottomland meadow. Within the past 3 weeks the alfalfa has grown to a height of 18 to 20 inches and is ready for the second cutting, after which the alfalfa will be permitted to grow and seed will be harvested. While at the same time the soil plant foods, conservative estimate show that Walsh's two acres of alfalfa will make five tons of hay plus a good seed crop this year.

Sixty-four persons had crossed the Atlantic Ocean by air before Charles Lindberg made his solo flight. Several airplanes and the English drigibel, R-34, had made trips across.

NEWS of

Swenson Soil Conser.

"Grazing vetch and rye has made me from $40 to $50 an acre clear this year," says Hiram E. Olson, of the Swenson Soil Conservation Group. Nine acres of vetch and rye on his home place provided two weeks of grazing for 210 lambs and one week of grazng for 430 sheep—an equivalent of year long grazing for one animal unit per acre.

Olson also planted 14 acres of Human clover last fall which he grazed with sheep for a short time in April. He plans to harvest the seed this year and plant about 50 per cent of his home place in such legumes as Hubam Austrian winter peas and vetch and rye.

A. M. G. Swenson is pleased at the results from the large diversion that was built in North Mountain pasture on the Flat Top Ranch. Water which would have gone down the slope was caught and diverted into the tank—amounting to about 15 feet of stock water.

Now that the wheat harvest is underway the opportunity is at hand for treatment of many acres with stubble mulching. Research studies have shown that a field of wheat and on which the residue has been left after harvest lost less than one-fifth inch of water through run-off and one-fifth of a ton of soil per acre as compared to a loss of three inches and 27 tons per acre on field falloowed and clear cultivated through the year. There were three and one-half inches more water in the upper six-foot layer of soil of the stubble mulched field than where straw had been turned under and clean fallowed.

The board of supervisors of the California Creek Soil Conservation District approved two agreements covering 340 acres at their regular meeting May 28. Mrs. A. A. Frierson and Haskell Stone became cooperators by the action of the board.

Five new applications for assistance were accepted on 1,618 acres. The applicants were Mrs. M. S. Pierson, T. L. Ballard, H. R. (Ray) Scott, Segerstrom Estate and M. E. Carothers.

Just Another One.

And then there's the story about the Scotchman who stayed away from a municipal banquet because he didn't know the meaning of the word "gratis" on the invitation. The next day he shot himself over an open dictionary in a public library.

Manufacturer-Dealer Car Contracts Probed

Area car dealers have considerable food for thought this week.

A resolution requesting the attorney general to investigate contracts between local dealers and car manufacturers has been passed by the Senate at Austin.

Briefly, the resolution now "in the mill" asks the attorney general to ascertain whether the types of contracts demanded by manufacturers are violations of the anti-trust laws.

Oddest news lately came from Rhode Island, from Pawtucket.

The very name of that place is odd isn't it? They arrested a man for laughing—and fined him too.

Doesn't look like a man has much freedom left if it's against the law to laugh, does it? What this old world needs is more laughs. With al the high prices, high taxes, strikes and world problems, they ought to pay a man a bounty for laughing.

Like the two men who were talking; one said, "A man who hides behind a woman's skirt is a coward" and the other said, "A man who hides behind a womans skirt these days is a magician." A man who can find anything to laugh about these days is really good!

There ought to be a law that he has to tell us what he's laughing about, so we can laugh, too. Like the man who was poor in purse and in physique. He said, "I'll examine help you look for it and, if you find you for $10 He said, "All right, I'll it, I want half."

Rhode Island is so little it would just make a watchfob for Texas. Why, Rhode Isand is so litte a man has to step over into Connecticut to have room to chasge his mind.

I read somewhere that Rhode Island is the most densely populated state n the Union and, judging from the Pawtucket happening the people of Rhode Island must be dense!

We invite that Pawtucket man to come to Texas where there is plenty of room. He can go out into the great open spaces of some of our Western counties where, if the inhabitants were placed in a line an equal distance apart, the human voice wouldn't carry to the next one in line. Or he can come to one of our Texas cities where he can laugh to his hearts content and nobody will even hear him. We have so many car horns honking ,ambulance sirens sounding, fire bells ringing and six-shooters firing that Gabriel will have to blow his horn a second time just especially for the cities of Texas.

Fine a man for laughing, indeed! Woudn't it be sensible to fine a fellow for being grouchy, grumpy and fault-finding? Give me the person who can see the silver lining in the clouds that overhang life.

The line of the poet will have to be changed to read, "Laugh and the world laughs with you—except in Pawtucket.

Am I going to Pawtucket? Brother don't make me laugh!

Veterans Administration Lubbock Office Reviews Firsr Year's Work

Veterans Administration regional office at Lubbock, serving 79 West Texas Counties including Jones, Taylor, Stonewall and Haskell reached its first anniversary on June 1, bringing to a close a year of phenomenal growth of Veterans Admnistration activities in this section. Many veterans of the Hamlin area have received benefits from this VA branch office.

The West Texas VA office marked the end of its first year of operation with renewed vigor and determined efforts to render a more efficient and expeditious service to veterans of this area in the years to come.

VA's work is dedicated to the veteran and his deipendents, and in administering the benefits, which a grateful nation has provided him, no sacrifice on the part of VA personnel is too great in rendering this service to the smallest detail, Robert W. Sisson, regional manager, said Thursday.

The region has expanded to include sub-regional offices at Amarillo and El Paso. Both have medical and dental clinics, and in addition a medical clinic has been opened in San Angelo. Contact offices have been located at Borger, Childress, downtown Lubbock, Abilene, San Angelo, Big Spring, Odessa and Pecos. Giudance centers have been established at Texas College of Mines, El Paso, Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, West Texas State College, Canyon, and Texas Tech, Lubbock. operation one year ago with a tremendous backlog of veteran's claims

Regional office at Lubbock began transfered from three different regional offices. On its first anniversary the office is current in its work while the claim folders have increased from 44,000 to 66,000.

It was pointed out that in the first year of the West Texas VA office more than $8,000,000 has been paid in disability compensation and more than $12,000,000 has been paid in subsistance to veterans going to the schools or taking on-the-job training.

As of June 1, 1947, 16,800 veterans in this region were in receipt of compensation, and 18.994 were engaged in education or training. One year ago 7,200 were receiving education or training benefits.

VA medical services to veterans of this area have greatly expended. During June of 1946 only 665 outpatient medical treatments were provided compared to 3,500 treatments rendered in May 1947. One year ago VA had only designated fee-basis physicians to render hometown treatments to veterans while at the present the services of more than 350 local physcians are utilized.

Since February 21, 1947, when the Congress extended the liberalized policy of reinstating GI insurance with payment of only two monthly premiums and submission of a comparative health statement, more than $6,000,000 in GI insurance has been reinstated in this region.

More than $12,000,000 in GI loans have been VA guaranteed amounting to approximately $25,000,000 in actual loan to veterans.

"In providing Hamlin area veterans with the service which they so richly deserve, we have done no more than our duty and in doing it we fell that the veteran and the taxpayer has every right to expect a report on the activities performed,"

'Tween Me and my Typewriter

by Jeanelle Bryant

Noticed an advertisement the other day referring to last month as the "marry month of June". With all the Hamlin brides marching down the aisles, it seems they are making that ad ring true. That also called to mind, that this Wednesday we celebrated our tenth wedding anniversary. Can't say that it seem only yesterday that we were saying "I do" but those years have passed by swiftly with very few dull moments. In our field of work there isn't time to become bored with life. And that is as it should be. We have worked together these ten years, side by side, and learned to be considerate of each other's feelings. And we could almost write a column similiar to Dorothy Dix giving advice on such matters but most advice goes in one ear and out the other, so why bother. What we started out to say is that we want to pause to pay tribute to the man we married June 11, 1937. To know and understand him is to appreciate him. One writer says to make a man happy is to understand him a lot and love him a little, and to make a woman happy is to love her a lot and try not to understand her. Might be so.

Everyone seems to be eagerly looking forward to the Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo at Stamford. So, are we. We are anxious to see those honest-to-goodness bow-legged cowboys. Most of the ones we have seen are those artificial ones that never rode a bronco.

One of Hamlin's greatest needs just now is rent houses. There doesn't seem to be room for one more family, and the Herald has calls every day for houses or apartments. We hate to see that gleam of hope fade from their face when we are forced to inform them there is nothing available. Not everyone who wishes to move here, can afford to build or buy a home.

There is indeed a great demand and we believe it will continue that way for years. If Hamlin keeps growing, and we are certain it will, we must provide decent living quarters at reasonable prices. We are at the point where we must go forward, stand still or go backward. There is absolutely no room to go forward until something is done about the housing situation. What must we do about it?

Since moving here, we have oft times wondered if the citizens of this community truly appreciate that obliging, congenial, friendly group of men and women at the Farmers and Merchants Bank. We have very little business to transact there (drat it) but they strike us as being a very accomodating group not the usual sour grape type whom you find in most banking institutions. They seem to be just as interested in the little business men as the millionaires. That is the kind of people that help to build Hamlin. Strangers can't help but be impressed favorably upon their very first visit to our local bank.

Speaking of impressions, had you ever stopped to think how filling station operators or employees, cafe operators, waitresses, soda fountain workers, and others in similar places may make a lasting impression on travelers who may spend ony a few minutes in our fair city, getting car fuel or eating. In thinking of towns and cities you have been through in your travels, dont you instantly recall if you stopped there and remember any special courtesy extended by some individual. As wrong as it might be, you will long remember the unkindness, and judge the whole town as being unfriendly, and an undesirable place to live. So, we should never get too engrossed in our work to show politeness to stranger when we have the opportunity to serve them

Got a kick out of Dr. Joe McCrary's answer last week when we inquired as to the kind of puppies he was advertising to give away. "Heinz 57", he replied.

Rev. J. T. Crawford and his congregation must be shy of publicity. Not one word did they tell us about the vacation Bible school which has just been concluded at that church. Just because we had him listed as the pastor of the First Methodist Church on the commencement programs is no reason to quit patronizing us. Dr. House, Methodist pastor, didn't feel so badly about it, as he says he was introduced as pastor of the Presbyterian church on a radio program once.

Stonewall County News Briefs

State Highway Department has approved caping of 10 miles of farm-to-market road from Aspermont to about three miles southwest of Johnson Chapel. Eventually, it is hoped to have an all weather road to Rotan.

Small grain harvest is now underway throughout Stonewall County.

Stonewall farmers are said to be going for peanuts in a big way, thousands of acres to be planted to the crop this year.

Rev. M. E. Fisher is new pastor of the Aspermont Methodist Church. He comes from Jayton. and replaces Rev. Alby J. Cockrel who goes to O'Donnell.

Robert Carey remains ill in Hendricks Memorial Hospital in Abilene, and his condition required blood transfusions early this week.

He thinks that adds distinction to him baving been recognized publicly as the pastor of three different denominations. Quite a knack to that.

Meet the boss!

MEET BABS BROWN, the Boss. We don't mean Mister Brown's boss, either. We mean our boss—and a very nice one, too.

Sound odd to you? Well, it isn't. It's a solid fact that your electric light and power company is owned by a lot of people like Babs Brown—and Bob Brown—yes, and yourself.

Housewives, doctors, teachers—industrial workers, craftsmen, farmers—mechanics and milkmen—people from all walks of life have put some of their savings into electric companies such as ours. They're the direct owners.

But there are countless indirect owners, too—and many of them have no idea of their stake in the electric industry. They are the people who have savings accounts or life insurance policies—and that means nearly everybody. It works like this: When banks and insurance companies accept your money they must invest it safely, wisely. And because business-managed electric companies have a long record of faithful public service, much of this money is invested in utility companies on physical property installed and dedicated to the public's service. So you, too, are probably one of our bosses.

A driver who was not breaking any law, and two passengers with him, burned to death in this inferno when a reckless overtaking motorist tried to pass their car where the way was too narrow. His engine rammed into the gasoline tank, setting it afire, and the car was knocked off the road, end over end into a field, where it quickly turned into a molten furnace. The lawbreaker himself was not injured —such is the irony of highway accidents. National Conservation Bureau safety specialists report that improper passing ranked fifth as a cause of motor vehicle deaths last year; most often it was combined with excessive speed which accounted for at least 8,000

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM THE TEXAS BUTANE DEALERS ASSOCIATION

BUTANE and PROPANE Users!

Is Your BUTANE or PROPANE System Ready for Next Winter?

The Texas Butane Dealers Association asks every domestic butane or propane gas user to take stock of your present system. If your tank cannot furnish gas enough to serve you through the four winter months without refilling, you may find yourself without heat this winter.

New industries developed during the war now demand tremendous amounts of butane and propane gases throughout the year. On the other hand, domestic users of gas burn four to seven times more in winter than in summer. Because of tremendous demand, your dealer is able to furnish you very little more gas in winter than in summer. In order to "level off" this high winter load, heating gas users must plan now to tank up far ahead with a four months' supply.

By doing this you can be absolutely sure of your supply. It's "Winter Insurance," just as the farmer has always stored grain early for winter use. Housewives do their canning in the summer. Your gas will already be in your tank when you need it most. And by taking less time for your dealer's services, he can supply you and your neighbors more efficiently and more economically at the time when winter roads usually hold up gas delivery.

Before you buy any system, consult your local gas dealer. He is your friend, he knows butane–propane, and he will cooperate in every way to help you prepare for winter now.

Ole George is depending altogether on the grapevine for local news, folks. Sorry to say, but still on the crutches. Same are no so hot!

President Truman made a very sensible speech last Saturday night on the national hook-up. He fired a few pot-shots at a Republican Congress—we hope he hit the target.

David Hennington, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hennington, underwent surgery at a hospital in Rotan last week. He is doing fine.

A pot-shot: Car dealers who sell cars above list price should have dealership taken away from them. Folks should report same to the boys who make the autos. A few honest business men should get the business. Too much "chiseling" going on over the country. Some folks are money mad and yet its a cinch they can't take it with them when they kick the bucket.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patton announce the arrival of Anita Alice on May 3. Weighing eight pounds. Mrs. Patton is the former Geneva Carter of this community.

Dr. Carl Rister of Oklahoma University was a visitor in McCaulley last week, he was accompanied by M. P. May of Hamlin.

Please mail your local news to this scribe—as he don't get around much any more.

Conditions of the world are so unsettled. War and rumors of war are spreading. It's one tragedy after the other, plane crashes, train wrecks, tornadoes, explosion and what have you. Some of these days old Gabriel will "toot" his horn before a lot of folks are ready! It will pay we inhabitants of the earth to sow more seeds of kindness toward our fellowman. After all, what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and then looses his own soul?

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion,* thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Mahon Pleads for Strong Air Force For U. S. Safety

Mahon points out that the president has asked for enough money to build 932 planes this year, but before the president's request could be processed construction costs were hiked so much that the money asked for will make only 749 planes. When the committee got through cutting, $40,000,000 of the original amount had been whacked away — leaving only enough to build 560 aircraft.

After he made a valiant but unrestore the sum, Mahon ssued this blast:

"While the peace has not been resolved and we are at loggerheads with Soviet Russia in arriving at that peace, for us to strip our Army Air Forces will be interpreted internationally as a show of weakness.

"This is certainly no time to cut down on the number of U. S. Army planes," stated Congressman George Mahon of the 19th District in Washington, in opposition to the Republican party's plans to cut the air in the world."

"But 749 airplanes of all types for when one considers our interests and our commitments," he declares. in the number of officer and civilian the Army Air Forces is not too many reported this week to the House, Mahon says he favors economizing propriations, as provided in the bill This is no time to reduce our military airplane program. Ths is especially true if we are to be a power personnel

Wheat Crop Through; 250 Cars Loaded Here

'Million Dollar" Crop for Area; Drops to $1.90

Rain Needed Now For Row Crops

With approximately 240 cars loaded through Thursday, Hamlin area's wheat crop was virtually completed this week. Only a few scattered tracts of wheat are left to be combined, it is reported, and a final total of 250 car loads is anticipated.

Wheat was bringing $1.90 per bushel in Hamlin Thursday morning, a 60 cent drop from the opening high of $2.50. Most farmers sold their wheat for $2.00 or better.

Competent local crop harvesters say the wheat averaged around 15 bushels per acre throughout this section and Hamlin wheat growers are credited with producing a "million dollar" crop.

Combines and trucks that poured into the early wheat belt were nearly all gone by the middle of this week and had started the long trek northward that will eventually wind up in far northern states and some in Canada.

Wheat in this locality was said to be excellent quality.

Hot winds of the past two or three weeks which proved such boon to wheat growers are now causing lots of uneasiness to those with row crops. Rain is badly needed now for feed crops, cotton, and other farm products.

Bangs Disease Speeds Tests In Herds of Area

A number of dairy herd owners in the Hamlin area have tested their cows for Bangs disease and tuberculosis, it has been revealed According to local employees of the Banner ice plant which now handles Banner milk here, these tests are the only way mlk may be safeguarded against the disease.

No cure or treatment has been discovered and when a cow is known to have the disease, the only recommended use is for beef. Thorough cookng is supposed to kill the disease.

Consumers of milk from infected cows face the danger of Brocellosis, commonly known in humans as Malta, undulant or goat fever. It is conveyed to them in raw milk or cream or products made from the same.

"Doctors warn that only pasteurization will render such milk absolutely safe." Banner representatives said, adding that danger of contracting the disease from infected cows is great. Just as no cure has been found for the dsease in cows, so no permanent cure has been found for humans and although it may be controlled, it seldom kills, but may cause permanent discomfort.

All users of milk products are urged to use products only from herds known to be tested or insist on the pasteurization.

Wet Areas Banned Under Liquor Bill

Jones, Fisher, Haskell and Taylor Counties are among the Texas counties which cannot have wet precincts or cities unless they approve legal alcoholic beverage sales on a county-wide basis, according to reports from Austin.

Representative Augustine Celaya of Brownsville, author of the bill setting up the new plan, declared that persons urging Governor Jester to veto the measure stress the wet and dry issue rather than the law enforcement merits. He cited nine provisions for enforcement, among them a prohibition against employment of minors by local or general distributors, and a ban on consumption on the premises by any minor.

Phyllis Richardson left Thursday for Lubbock, where she will attend the summer term at Texas Tech.

Special Election Called by Hamlin School District

An election has been called for June 17 by the Hamlin School Board for the purpose of adding to the Building Fund in order to complete and furnsh the building now under construction and to make needed repairs to the High School. The Elementary Building is near completion with only a few more weeks needed for the finishing work. The Primary building has the structural work completed and is ready for the plastering and finishing work.

It is pointed out by the Board that the elementary building was designed to care for the original Hamlin District. With the expansion of the district from 25 square miles to the present 251 square miles and from the 679 scholastics to the present 1,091 scholastics, the Board began the additional building on the existing funds in order to have a school plant in readiness by September to care for the entire district.

In a statement to The Herald the board said: "It is estimated that the present school plant when completed will be ample to care for the needs of the district and will allow for a normal expected growth of the scholastic population. Therefore, no further future building need be anticpated during the life of the present buildings. The $60,000 bond issue that is asked by the Board is spread over the entire area of the District, which now has an evaluation of over $4,000,000 based on last year's equalization, the greater portion of which is on county evaluation. The issue asked by the Board will not be such as to cause changes in the tax rate or overall increase in evaluation and leaves the District in a much better financial condition than at the time the first issue was requested."

Majority of Farm Products Remain At Higher Prices

Active demand at firm to higher prices ruled the majority of southwest farm markets in the latest report received by The Herald from the Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture. Wheat, cows, calves, shorn lambs and hens were the losters.

Liberal offerings of new crop wheat broke the market early last week, and prices fell 50 cents after the long holiday week-end. Later rallies recovered little of the losings. The new crop made favorable

Eggs and most poultry maintained Hens showed slight weakness, and Texas and Louisiana centers showed gains of 25 to 75 cents.

Spot cotton prices climbed steadily last week to score total advances of around $4.50 per bale. Fairly numerous inquiries for the higher grades attracted only light offerings. 8he new crop made favorable progress in most states.

Eggs and most poultry mantained steady to firm prices last week. Hens ssowed slight weakness, and sold mainly at 22 to 26 cents per pound. Most areas brought eggs at 36 to 38 cents per dozen; but South Texas and Lousana centers gains of 25 to 75 cents.

Hog prices fluctuated some last week but netted mostly gains of 25 to 75 cents. Heavy weights at the Wichita market showed the only real weakness. Closing bulk of good and choice butcher hogs brought $24.75 at Fort Worth and Denver. Closing top was $25.25 at Oklahoma City and $24.60 at Wichita. Week's top was $24.25 at San Antonio.

Spring lambs gained mostly 50 cents to $1. at southwest terminals last week, but aged sheep and low grade shorn lambs dropped almost as much lower. Generally steady to slightly weaker prices prevailed at Denver last week for steers, heifers and cows, while low grade cows and calves moved generally lower at other southwest markets. Bull and some stocker classes showed weakness at San Antonio and Oklahoma City. Canner and cutter cows sold at $8.50 to $10.50 at Houston; $8.50 to $11.

Round Top Field Expected To Have 2 New Producers

H. M. Warden, Dallas, vice-president and general manager of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Lines, lead a Katy paint gang recently when the station at Italy, Texas, was painted white. Holding the bucket for Warden is W. Dinsmore, Katy agent at Italy for 28 years. The occasion was a recent clean-up paint-up campaign started by the town's 1222 residents, when, armed with mowers, rakes, brooms, mops, soap, water and paint they turned out on a Good Neighbor Day to clean up the town. By sundown the village was the cleanest in the State of Texas. In order to co-operate with residents the Katy broke all precedents, and painted its depot white instead of standard green—as a result the railroad now has what is believed to be the only white frame depot in the nation.

Terrell No. 2 Due to Come In Thursday

Texas Company South Offset Said Good Well

Oil talk in the Hamlin area this week centered around the Round Top field 10 miles west of here in Fisher County where one well was due to have been completed Thursday and another is expected to be drilled in momentarily.

From a source considered reliable, The Herald learned Wednesday night that the J. B. Terrell No. 2, a direct east offset of the pool opener, No. 1 Terrell, was expected to be brought in during the night or early Thursday. Drillstem tests were reported to have recovered a good quanity of high-gravity oil from about 4,900 feet. It was said that a well was likely to be much better than the No. 1 which gauged 307 barrels daily of 41 gravity oil.

In the same field, the Texas Company is also said to have another real producer and it is likely they will complete it within a few days. Nothing authentic could be learned. Interest in the area has mounted since the deep test was successful several months ago.

Elsewhere in Fisher County, considerable activity has been noted in the Eskota field.

Drilling began Saturday on a new Jones County wildcat, 10 miles to the southwest of Anson, which may test through the Strawn series. It is Ungren & Frazier and Jones & Stasney No. 1 J. Marvn Lewis, 330 feet from south and east lines of S. S. Redman survey 1. Primarily to test the Swastika, the test is projected to 4,800 feet with cable tools.

Five miles north of Merkel, operators were checking for the basal Cisco sand below 3,500 feet in Roark, Hooker & Roark No. 2 E. T. Pitzer et al, extension attempt to the county's only Strawn production. Location is lot 25, league 56, De Witt County School Land.

A mile north, operators were working for completion in the Noodle lime between 2,433 and 2,440 feet on Trinity Carter, section 32, block 18, T & P survey.

The test had been drilled to 3,112 feet without logging any shows of deeper than the Noodle. First perforations in the section were squeezed off after cement failed to shut off water from a lower formation.

Operator of Austin Motel Compliment Seniors Behavior

A letter complimenting highly the conduct of Hamlin High School seniors while spending two nights at an Austin Motel has been received by Superintendent I. S. Huchington of the local schools. Mr. Hutchingson feels that parents and Hamlin people in general would be interested in contents of the letter which follows:

Dear Mr. Huchingson:

Am writing this letter to let you know that I appreciate your students staying with me on the nights of May 16 and 17. They were all well behaved and I find no complaint of their conduct. You certainly had good sponsors to look after them. They stayed on their job and saw that things were carried out, I am sure, as you would have them done. You are very fortunate to have sponsors like them. I would like to meet you some time when you are in Austin. I naturally feel interested in school teachers because my husband was superintendent of Schools at Victoria up to the time of his death in 1912. Thanks again for the opportunity to take care of your group. Hope you see fit to send them to me again.

Yours very truly,

Head Of Jones Farm Bureau Protests Slash

Howard C. Campbell, president of Jones county Farm Bureau has wired Congressman Omer Burleson Senators Connally and O'Daniel, and Clifford Hope, chairman, Agricultural Committee, deploring the drastic slash in the appropriations for the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

"Hoover's economy movement was a picnic for the farmers compared with what will eventually happen if Congress now cuts the heart out of our department," Campbell said.

The economy would cripple the P. M. A., the R. E. A., the school Lunch Propram, the extension Service; crop insurance, Research and Marketing, and kill the FSA tenant purchase program.

"We have wired our Congressman our protest," Mr. Campbell said, "and we are supporting the Texas Farm Bureau Federation and the American funds for the Department of Agriculture."

Fisher County Farm Fields Being Saved By Grass Plantings

Hamlin section farmers are quite interested in the fact a number of abandoned fields in Fisher County are being brought bac kinto use.

A number of Fisher County farmers are seeding depleted soils to pasture grasses and clovers.

L. W. Turbeville reports that he has been called on repeatedly for help in putting the old fields back into production.

J. C. Simpson, for instance, a Fisher County farmer, has made five acres of abandoned land pay dividends again by clearing off mesquite growth and planting weeping love grass, Madrid clover and blue panic grass.

Tom Parker, another Fisher Couney farmer, revived nine and a half acres with buffalo, blue grama and blue panic grasses. Mrs. Faye Young Morton, who lives north of Hamlin, brought six acres back to life with the weeping love and blue panic grasses.

County Agent Turbeville says there is a drive underway in the county to put all land to some good use. Most of the new acreage that has been planted to the grasses and clovers will be harvested for seed, so that more extensive pasture seeding can be done during 1948.

Too many people interpret courtesy as lack of sales resistance.

Jones County's California Creek SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

W. W. Mayfied, located in the Southwest Stamford group of the California Creek Soil Conservation District, sowed biennial white clover on his tank dam last fall. It has made a good growth and furnishes grazing as well as protection to the dam. Mayfied said, "My clover is doing so well that I am going to plant some in my pasture next fall."

Mayfield planted an acre of clover in 1945 and followed it with cotton. "You could see to the row where the clover had been planted. The cotton was about one and a half feet higher than that around it," he said. Although no greater cotton yields were made n rlover area, due to damage from worms, the plants were healthier and more vigorous because of the increased plant food and improved soil structure provided by the clover. The residual effects of the clover are evident this year. Small cotton plants in the clover area show longer, straighter, and heavier tap root as well a heavier stalks than in nearby areas were no clover had been planted.

Charlie Walsh, located in the Southwest Stamford Soil Conservation group, made his first cutting of afalfa on may 6. He just had time to stack and cover it before the heavy rains set in. It is estimated that he made 2.8 tons of hay, off his two acre bottomland meadow. Within the past 3 weeks the alfalfa has grown to a height of 18 to 20 inches and is ready for the second cutting, after which the alfalfa will be permitted to grow and seed will be harvested. While at the same time the soil plant foods, conservative estimate show that Walsh's two acres of alfalfa will make five tons of hay plus a good seed crop this year.

Sixty-four persons had crossed the Atlantic Ocean by air before Charles Lindberg made his solo flight. Several airplanes and the English drigibel, R-34, had made trips across.

Swenson Soil Conser..

"Grazing vetch and rye has made me from $40 to $50 an acre clear this year," says Hiram E. Olson, of the Swenson Soil Conservation Group. Nine acres of vetch and rye on his home place provided two weeks of grazing for 210 lambs and one week of grazng for 430 sheep—an equivalent of year long grazing for one animal unit per acre.

Olson also planted 14 acres of Human clover last fall which he grazed with sheep for a short time in April. He plans to harvest the seed this year and plant about 50 per cent of his home place in such legumes as Hubam Austrian winter peas and vetch and rye.

A. M. G. Swenson is pleased at the results from the large diversion that was built in Noron Mountain pasture on the Flat Top Ranch. Water which would have gone down the slope was caught and diverted into the tank—amounting to about 15 feet of stock water.

Now that the wheat harvest is underway the opportunity is at hand for treatment of many acres with stubble mulching. Research studies have shown that a field of wheat and on which the residue has been left after harvest lost less than one-fifth inch of water through run-off and one-fifth of a ton of soil per acre as compared to a loss of three inches and 27 tons per acre on field falloowed and clear cultivated through the year. There were three and one-half inches more water in the upper six-foot layer of soil of the stubble mulched field than where straw had been turned under and clean fallowed.

The board of supervisors of the California Creek Soil Conservation District approved two agreements covering 340 acres at their regular meeting May 28. Mrs. A. A. Frierson and Haskell Stone became cooperators by the action of the board.

Five new applications for assistance were accepted on 1,618 acres. The applicants were Mrs. M. S. Pierson, T. L. Ballard, H. R. (Ray) Scott, Segerstrom Estate and M. E. Carothers.

Just Another One.

And then there's the story about the Scotchman who stayed away from a municipal banquet because he didn't know the meaning of the word "gratis" on the invitation. The next day he shot himself over an open dictionary in a public library.

by Boyce House

Oddest news lately came from Rhode Island, from Pawtucket.

The very name of that place is odd isn't it? They arrested a man for laughing—and fined him too.

Doesn't look like a man has much freedom left if it's against the law to laugh, does it? What this old world needs is more laughs. With al the high prices, high taxes, strikes and world problems, they ought to pay a man a bounty for laughing.

Like the two men who were talking; one said, "A man who hides behind a woman's skirt is a coward" and the other said, "A man who hides behind a womans skirt these days is a magician." A man who can find anything to laugh about these days is really good!

There ought to be a law that he has to tell us what he's laughing about, so we can laugh, too. Like the man who was poor in purse and in physique. He said, "I'll examine help you look for it and, if you find you for $10 He said, "All right, I'll it, I want half."

Rhode Island is so little it would just make a watchfob for Texas. Why, Rhode Isand is so litte a man has to step over into Connecticut to have room to chasge his mind.

I read somewhere that Rhode Island is the most densely populated state n the Union and, judging from the Pawtucket happening the people of Rhode Island must be dense!

We invite that Pawtucket man to come to Texas where there is plenty of room. He can go out into the great open spaces of some of our Western counties where, if the inhabitants were placed in a line an equal distance apart, the human voice wouldn't carry to the next one in line. Or he can come to one of our Texas cities where he can laugh to his hearts content and nobody will even hear him. We have so many car horns honking ,ambulance sirens sounding, fire bells ring ing and six-shooters firing that Gabriel will have to blow his horn a second time just especially for the cities of Texas.

Fine a man for laughing, indeed! Woudn't it be sensible to fine a fellow for being grouchy, grumpy and fault-finding? Give me the person who can see the silver lining in the clouds that overhang life.

The line of the poet will have to be changed to read, "Laugh and the world laughs with you—except in Pawtucket.

Am I going to Pawtucket? Brother don't make me laugh!

Veterans Administration Lubbock Office Reviews Firsr Year's Work

Veterans Administration regional office at Lubbock, serving 70 West Texas Counties including Jones, Taylor, Stonewall and Haskell reached its first anniversary on June 1, bringing to a close a year of phenomenal growth of Veterans Admnistration activities in this section.

Many veterans of the Hamlin area have received benefits from this VA branch office.

The West Texas VA office marked the end of its first year of operation with renewed vigor and determined efforts to render a more efficient and expeditious service to veterans of this area in the years to come.

VA's work is dedicated to the veteran and his deipendents, and in administering the benefits, which a grateful nation has provided him, no sacrifice on the part of VA personnel is too great in rendering this service to the smallest detail, Robert W. Sisson, regional manager, said Thursday.

The region has expanded to include sub-regional offices at Amarillo and El Paso. Both have medical and dental clinics, and in addition a medical clinic has been opened in San Angelo. Contact offices have been located at Borger, Childress, downtown Lubbock, Abilene, San Angelo, Big Spring, Odessa and Pecos. Giudance centers have been established at Texas College of Mines, El Paso, Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, West Texas State College, Canyon, and Texas Tech, Lubbock. operation one year ago with a tremendous backlog of veteran's claims

Regional office at Lubbock began transfered from three different regional offices. On its first anniversary the office is current in its work while the claim folders have increased from 44,000 to 66,000.

It was pointed out that in the first year of the West Texas VA office more than $8,000,000 has been paid in disability compensation and more than $12,000,000 has been paid in subsistance to veterans going to the schools or taking on-the-job training.

As of June 1, 1947, 16,800 veterans in this region were in receipt of compensation, and 18,994 were engaged in education or training. One year ago 7,200 were receiving education or training benefits.

VA medical services to veterans of this area have greatly expended. During June of 1946 only 665 outpatient medical treatments were provided compared to 3,500 treatments rendered in May 1947. One year ago VA had only designated fee-basis physicians to render hometown treatments to veterans while at the present the services of more than 350 local physcians are utilized.

Since February 21, 1947, when the Congress extended the liberalized policy of reinstating GI insurance with payment of only two monthly premiums and submission of a comparative health statement, more than $6,000,000 in GI insurance has been reinstated in this region.

More than $12,000,000 in GI loans have been VA guaranteed amounting to approximately $25,000,000 in actual loan to veterans.

"In providing Hamlin area veterans with the service which they so richly deserve, we have done no more than our duty and in doing it we feel that the veteran and the taxpayer has every right to expect a report on the activities performed."

'Tween Me and my Typewriter

by Jeanelle Bryant

Noticed an advertisement the other day referring to last month as the "marry month of June". With all the Hamlin brides marching down the aisles, it seems they are making that ad ring true. That also called to mind, that this Wednesday we celebrated our tenth wedding anniversary. Can't say that it seem only yesterday that we were saying "I do" but those years have passed by swiftly with very few dull moments. In our field of work there isn't time to become bored with life. And that is as it should be. We have worked together these ten years, side by side, and learned to be considerate of each other's feelings. And we could almost write a column similiar to Dorothy Dix giving advice on such matters but most advice goes in one ear and out the other, so why bother. What we started out to say is that we want to pause to pay tribute to the man we married June 11, 1937. To know and understand him is to appreciate him. One writer says to make a man happy is to understand him a lot and love him a little, and to make a woman happy is to love her a lot and try not to understand her. Might be so.

Everyone seems to be eagerly looking forward to the Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo at Stamford. So, are we. We are anxious to see those honest-to-goodness bow-legged cowboys. Most of the ones we have seen are those artificial ones that never rode a bronco.

One of Hamlin's greatest needs just now is rent houses. There doesn't seem to be room for one more family, and the Herald has calls every day for houses or apartments. We hate to see that gleam of hope fade from their face when we are forced to inform them there is nothing available. Not everyone who wishes to move here, can afford to build or buy a home.

There is indeed a great demand and we believe it will continue that way for years. If Hamlin keeps growing, and we are certain it will, we must provide decent living quarters at reasonable prices. We are at the point where we must go forward, stand still or go backward. There is absolutely no room to go forward until something is done about the housing situation. What must we do about it?

Since moving there, we have oft times wondered if the citizens of this community truly appreciate that obliging, congenial, friendly group of men and women at the Farmers and Merchants Bank. We have very little business to transact there (drat it) but they strike us as being a very accomodating group not the usual sour grape type whom you find in most banking institutions. They seem to be just as interested in the little business men as the millionaires. That is the kind of people that help to build Hamlin. Strangers can't help but be impressed favorably upon their very first visit to our local bank.

Speaking of impressions, had you ever stopped to think how filling station operators or employees, cafe operators, waitresses, soda fountain workers, and others in similar places may make a lasting impression on travelers who may spend ony a few minutes in our fair city, getting car fuel or eating. In thinking of towns and cities you have been through in your travels, dont you instantly recall if you stopped there and remember any special courtesy extended by some individual. As wrong as it might be, you will long remember the unkindness, and judge the whole town as being unfriendly, and an undesirable place to live. So, we should never get too engrossed in our work to show politeness to stranger when we have the opportunity to serve them

Got a kick out of Dr. Joe McCrary's answer last week when we inquired as to the kind of puppies he was advertising to give away. "Heinz 57", he replied.

Rev. J. T. Crawford and his congregation must be shy of publicity. Not one word did they tell us about the vacation Bible school which has just been concluded at that church. Just because we had him listed as the pastor of the First Methodist Church on the commencement programs is no reason to quit patronizing us. Dr. House, Methodist pastor, didn't feel so badly about it, as he says he was introduced as pastor of the Presbyterian church on a radio program once. He thinks that adds distinction to him baving been recognized publicly as the pastor of three different denominations. Quite a knack to that.

Isn't it commendable that such a busy, famous man as President Truman never neglects his mother when he thinks she needs or wants him. We have always been taught to admire the man who loves and respects his mother.

Stonewall County News Briefs

State Highway Department has approved caping of 10 miles of farm-to-market road from Aspermont to about three miles southwest of Johnson Chapel. Eventually, it is hoped to have an all weather road to Rotan.

Small grain harvest is now underway throughout Stonewall County.

Stonewall farmers are said to be going for peanuts in a big way, thousands of acres to be planted to the crop this year.

Rev. M. E. Fisher is new pastor of the Aspermont Methodist Church. He comes from Jayton, and replaces Rev. Alby J. Cockrel who goes to O'Donnell.

Robert Carey remains ill in Hendricks Memorial Hospital in Abilene, and his condition required blood transfusions early this week.

R. G. Stephenson and daughter Ann, of Tucumcari, New Mexico were here this week for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Etta Stephenson.

Barbra Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown of Brger, underwent a tonsilectomy last week at Callan Hospital. She is reported doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gilreath visited his brother, M. G. Gilreath and sister, Mrs. G. A. Best and families at Bronte Sunday.

Meet the boss!

MEET BABS BROWN, the Boss. We don't mean Mister Brown's boss, either. We mean our boss—and a very nice one, too.

Sound odd to you? Well, it isn't. It's a solid fact that your electric light and power company is owned by a lot of people like Babs Brown—and Bob Brown—yes, and yourself.

Housewives, doctors, teachers—industrial workers, craftsmen, farmers—mechanics and milkmen—people from all walks of life have put some of their savings into electric companies such as ours. They're the direct owners.

But there are countless indirect owners, too—and many of them have no idea of their stake in the electric industry. They are the people who have savings accounts or life insurance policies—and that means nearly everybody. It works like this: When banks and insurance companies accept your money they must invest it safely, wisely. And because business-managed electric companies have a long record of faithful public service, much of this money is invested in utility companies on physical property installed and dedicated to the public's service. So you, too, are probably one of our bosses.

A driver who was not breaking any law, and two passengers with him, burned to death in this inferno when a reckless overtaking motorist tried to pass their car where the way was too narrow. His engine rammed into the gasoline tank, setting it afire, and the car was knocked off the road, end over end into a field, where it quickly turned into a molten furnace. The lawbreaker himself was not injured —such is the irony of highway accidents. National Conservation Bureau safety specialists report that improper passing ranked fifth as a cause of motor vehicle deaths last year; most often it was combined with excessive speed which accounted for at least 8,000

BUTANE and PROPANE Users!

Is Your BUTANE or PROPANE System Ready for Next Winter?

The Texas Butane Dealers Association asks every domestic butane or propane gas user to take stock of your present system. If your tank cannot furnish gas enough to serve you through the four winter months without refilling, you may find yourself without heat this winter.

New industries developed during the war now demand tremendous amounts of butane and propane gases throughout the year. On the other hand, domestic users of gas burn four to seven times more in winter than in summer. Because of tremendous demand, your dealer is able to furnish you very little more gas in winter than in summer. In order to "level off" this high winter load, heating gas users must plan now to tank up far ahead with a four months' supply.

By doing this you can be absolutely sure of your supply. It's "Winter Insurance," just as the farmer has always stored grain early for winter use. Housewives do their canning in the summer. Your gas will already be in your tank when you need it most. And by taking less time for your dealer's services, he can supply you and your neighbors more efficiently and more economically at the time when winter roads usually hold up gas delivery.

A few honest business men should get the business. Too much "chiseling" going on over the country. Some folks are money mad and yet its a cinch they can't take it with them when they kick the bucket.

Conditions of the world are so unsettled. War and rumors of war are spreading. It's one tragedy after the other, plane crashes, train wrecks, tornadoes, explosion and what have you. Some of these days old Gabriel will "toot" his horn before a lot of folks are ready! It will pay we inhabitants of the earth to sow more seeds of kindness toward our fellowman. After all, what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and then looses his own soul?

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion,* thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Mahon Pleads for Strong Air Force For U. S. Safety

Mahon points out that the president has asked for enough money to build 932 planes this year, but before the president's request could be processed construction costs were hiked so much that the money asked for will make only 749 planes. When the committee got through cutting, $40,000,000 of the original amount had been whacked away — leaving only enough to build 560 aircraft.

After he made a valiant but unrestore the sum, Mahon ssued this blast:

"While the peace has not been resolved and we are at loggerheads with Soviet Russia in arriving at that peace, for us to strip our Army Air Forces will be interpreted internationally as a show of weakness.

"This is certainly no time to cut down on the number of U. S. Army planes," stated Congressman George Mahon of the 19th District in Washington, in opposition to the Republican party's plans to cut the air in the world."

"But 749 airplanes of all types for when one considers our interests and our commitments," he declares. in the number of officer and civilian the Army Air Forces is not too many reported this week to the House, Mahon says he favors economizing propriations, as provided in the bill This is no time to reduce our military airplane program. Ths is especially true if we are to be a power personnel

As for other cuts of military apsuccessful attempt in committee to forces construction appropriations.
